

COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

RESPECT

- Be reasonable in your demands on players; promote and support an academic/family/social/sport balance.
- Develop and model team respect for opponents, umpires, and volunteers.
- Remember that players need a coach they can respect. Always set a good example and endeavour to be a mentor.
- Demonstrate and promote respect for club property; including but not limited to, playing jerseys, training equipment, game day equipment, goal posts, club rooms and changerooms.

INSPIRE

- Remember that players are there for fun and enjoyment.
- Maintain fairness and equity for on field opportunities; all players need and deserve equal time, and in a variety of positions. Adhere to current WAFC player rotation guidelines every game.
- Support the development of skills in all players equally and focus on team development over a 'play to win' mentality.
- Be generous with your praise and positive in your language.

RESPONSIBILITY

- Learn the rules and ensure all players play by them.
- Prioritise the safety and wellbeing of all players.
- Adhere to and reinforce a smoke, vape, drug & alcohol-free environment in accordance with the RJFC and WAFC Smoking and Alcohol Policy.
- All RJFC teams must consistently train at the RJFC home ground – "Springdale Park, Springdale Road, Roleystone". Training must be conducted in accordance with the RJFC Club Training Policy.
- Communicate any relevant team or club information to team via means of email and/or other chat methods. All email communication must include the president and secretary using the following email addresses: presidentrjfc72@gmail.com and secretaryrjfc72@gmail.com. The president and secretary must be included in any group communications via other means.
- Report any behaviour by members, volunteers and visitors that may be deemed inappropriate and/or go against RJFC club policies to the president and integrity officer.
- Follow the advice of a doctor when determining if an injured player is fit to play and in what capacity.
- WAFC Concussion Management Policy must be followed.

- Read and accept all RJFC Policies.
- Adhere to/support any disciplinary directives if there is a breach of policy.
